Legal Issues for the Business of Your Professional Practice

Friday, February 22, 2019
1 PM to 3 PM

This workshop will guide attendees through an interactive discussion covering numerous legal topics essential to the business of running a professional practice, such as choice of entity, hiring others, and ownership of materials. Bring your questions. The legal issues covered include Corporations, LLCs, Employees vs. Independent Contractors, Ownership of Work Product, Service Agreements, Business Signatures, Trademarks, and Trade Secrets.

Presenter

Jessica Oldani, J.D., attorney at Oldani Entrepreneurial La

Ms. Oldani holds a Juris Doctor (J.D.) and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International Business and Trade Law from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago, Illinois, with LL.M coursework certificates in International Corporate and Finance Law and International Trade Law. Prior to founding Oldani Entrepreneurial Law, P.C., Ms. Oldani practiced international business and trade law at a boutique Chicago-based firm representing multinational business clients. Years prior, after graduating from Washington University in St. Louis, Ms. Oldani founded and ran her first business, a successful Chicago-area not-for-profit corporation. Ms. Oldani brings real-world operational and bottom-line intelligence to her practice, advising small-to-midmarket businesses on structuring and protecting domestic and international entities, relationships, and transactions. Ms. Oldani represents for-profit and not-for-profit clients in a wide range of industries, and serves as a knowledgeable and trusted advisor, not only for her clients, but also within the local business community. In addition to running her practice, Ms. Oldani serves on the City of Evanston Minority, Women, and Evanston Business Enterprise Development Committee, working to address community and small business development. Ms. Oldani is a member of the American Bar Association's ("ABA's") Section of Intellectual Property ("IP") Law and of the ABA IP Law Section's Copyright Legislation Committee. Ms. Oldani is a respected speaker on legal issues relevant to entrepreneurs and business leaders.
